

THE 50-210 FIRE DEPARTMENT LADIES AUXILIARY MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

I. General Information

The 50-210 Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary Merit Scholarship will be awarded to at least one student that lives within the 50-210 fire district. This scholarship will not be based solely on academic achievement but will also be based on community orientation and community service. It is our goal to recognize a student who has not only reached academic success but one who has also given back to the community in which they live.

The student will be able to attend any institution of higher education to pursue their career goals.

The scholarship will be a onetime only value of $500.00. Upon receipt of notification of enrollment, the payment will be made directly to the cashier's office at the recipient's college, university, or technical school of enrollment.

II. Application Procedure

1. Any high school; senior who meets the criteria may submit an application. Applications may be obtained from the school counselor or online at www.50210fire.com under the Ladies Auxiliary tab.

2. Completed applications must be submitted by mail and must be postmarked no later than April 1, 2017. Applications dropped off at the fire station will not be accepted. Applications should be mailed to :
